2007 - Worksheet for Pension Income Deduction - Schedule 1, Line 2dEnclose this Worksheet and copies of your 1099 form(s) with your Form 1040ME

You and your spouse (if married) may each deduct up to $6,000 of eligible pension income* that is included in your federal adjusted gross income. Except for military pension benefits, the $6,000 cap must be reduced by any social security and railroad retirement benefits received, whether taxable or not.

Deductible pension income includes state, federal and military pension benefits, as well as retirement benefits received from plans established and maintained by an employer for the benefit of its employees under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) sections 401(a) (Qualified Pension Plans, including qualified 401 SIMPLE plans) and 403 (Employee annuities). Deductible pension income also includes benefits received under IRC section 457(b) (State and local government/tax exempt organizations/eligible deferred compensation plans), except that pension income from 457(b) plans received prior to age 55 that is not part of a series of equal periodic payments made over the life of the recipient and the recipient's designated beneficiary, if applicable, may not be included in the deductible pension amount.

Pension benefits that do not qualify are those received from an individual retirement account (including SIMPLE individual retirement accounts), simplified employee pension plan, benefits from an ineligible deferred compensation plan under IRC section 457(f), refunds of excess contributions, lump-sum distributions included on federal Form 4972 and distributions subject to the additional 10% federal tax on early distributions (see federal Form 5329, Part 1, or federal Form 1040, line 60). Also, disability benefits reported as wages on your federal income tax return do not qualify.

Eligible pension income does not include benefits earned by another person, except in the case of a surviving spouse. Only the individual that earned the benefit from prior employment may claim the pension income for the deduction. However, a widowed spouse receiving survivor's benefits under an eligible pension plan may claim that amount for purposes of this deduction, but the total pension deduction for the surviving spouse may not exceed $6,000.

NOTE: Enter eligible non-military pension benefits on line 1 and eligible military pension benefits on line 6.
